Rethink the $30,000 Farebox

Get What You Need. Spend Less.

Take Fare Collection Back to Basics

Why pay for hardware, software, and processing capabilities your agency doesn't need? Separate the essential fare collection functions, reduce unnecessary complexity, and invest in the capabilities that fit your operation.

› Simplify your approach

Reduce unnecessary hardware, software, and processing complexity.

› Tailor your solution

Support the combination of cash and digital payment capabilities your agency requires, nothing more.

› Save time and money

Avoid paying for unused functionality while reducing acquisition and lifecycle costs.

A Practical Approach to Modern Fare Collection.
